GLORIOUS GALAXY I

Adventures in the Genesis of God's Creation

DAY 1

BIBLE STORY

Genesis 1 God creates the world.

In the beginning, before there was an earth, oceans, animals, or people, there was God. So God said, "Let there be light." God liked the light! He separated the light from the dark and called them day and night. On the second day, God separated the water on the ground, like oceans, from the water in the sky, like clouds and fog. On the third day, God separated the water from the dry land so that we could have rivers, beaches, and shores. God made plants that make seeds grow on the dry land, like apple trees.

On the fourth day, God put in the sky our bright, shining sun for daytime and our luminous moon for nighttime. He also made the twinkly stars shine with the moon at night. On the fifth day, God filled the oceans with all kinds of fish, and He filled the sky and trees with many kinds of colorful, chirping birds. On the sixth day, God filled the land with all sorts of amazing animals, like growling tigers, wiggly monkeys, fast wolves, and fluffy rabbits. He also created two people: Adam and Eve. On the seventh day, God looked at all He had made. He thought it was so good! God was happy with all His work, and He rested on the seventh day.

BIBLE STORY MEMORY Genesis 1:31

God saw all that he had made,

DAY 1

BIBLE STORY

Genesis 2 God creates man.

When God finished working on the rest of His creation, He formed the shape of a man with the dust on the ground. God breathed His own breath into the shape of the man, and the man became a living being! God placed Adam in a garden He planted called Eden, where four big rivers flowed and watered the plants and trees. God told Adam to tend the garden and take care of it. God also said that Adam could eat from any of the trees in the garden, except for one. God said not to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil because if he did, he would die.

Then, God brought all the animals to Adam for him to see. God let Adam name all the animals, like jaguars, and giraffes! God saw Adam and thought, "It is not good for the man to be alone." God decided to make a helper for Adam, so He caused Adam to fall into a deep sleep. While Adam was sleeping, God took part of his rib out of his body, but it didn't hurt Adam at all! God made a woman out of Adam's rib. When Adam woke up, there was Eve! Adam and Eve became man and wife and lived in the garden that God had created for them.

DAY 1

BIBLE STORY

Genesis 3 Adam and Eve disobey God.

In the beautiful garden that God created for Adam and Eve, a tricky serpent asked Eve if God really said they could not eat from the tree in the middle of the garden. Eve told him that if they ate from that tree, they would die. The serpent said that if they ate from that tree, they would be as smart as God. Eve believed the serpent and ate the fruit, and then gave some to Adam. Afterward, they felt ashamed for disobeying God. They covered their bodies with leaves and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden when they heard Him walking.

God called out to Adam and Eve, "Where are you?" Adam said he was afraid because he was naked and so he hid, so God asked if they had eaten the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden. Adam said Eve gave him some fruit and he ate it. Eve said the serpent tricked her and she ate it. Then God turned to the serpent and cursed it so it would crawl on its belly and eat dirt from then on. God then told Adam and Eve that living and working to feed their family outside of the garden would be painful work, and that they would not live forever. Then God sent Adam and Eve out of the garden.

Adventures in the Genesis of God's Creation

DAY 1

BIBLE STORY

Genesis 12, 14 God calls & empowers Abram.

God gave Abram a special blessing with promises of good things for his life. God then asked Abram to do something hard and leave his home and some of his family. God told Abram He would make him a great nation and that all people on Earth would be blessed through him! So, Abram believed God, packed up all his belongings, and brought with him his wife Sarai and his nephew, Lot. In a land called Canaan, God told Abram that the land he was standing on would someday belong to his children! Abram was so happy that he built an altar made of stones and rocks to give thanks for what God had done.

Lot then lived in a city called Sodom. Their bad king and four kings ran away after being attacked by four other kings, leaving the city unprotected. Lot and all he owned were captured, but one of the people from Sodom escaped and told Abram. Abram knew God would help him to rescue Lot and called 318 men to help. They attacked the enemy's army at night and were able to free Lot and all the captives! The king of Sodom wanted to pay Abram for saving them, but Abram said no to show that his blessings come only from God.
